WAZZLI REPLICATOR—WE
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1915

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, MAY 6, 1915.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

A weapon that comes down as still
As snow flakes fall upon the sod;
But executes a free man's will.
As lightning does the will of God;
And from its force, nor doors nor locks
Can shield you; 'tis the ballot-box.
—Pierpont.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Tuesday morning, the venerable Mr. Robert Brown, of Fourth street, had a narrow escape from death. Mr. Brown was watching the big cotton factory fire, and was standing on the trestle over Wall street, when a freight train approached unseen by him. In his effort to get out of danger, he stepped in front of a slowly moving electric cycle-car, and was knocked down and dragged some little distance, but luckily escaped with only a slight cut on the arm. Had the machine been going faster he would probably have been knocked over the trestle to his death upon the rocks below.

NOTED PEDESTRIAN HERE.

Mr. A. C. Lightfoot, the champion pedestrian of the world at any distance from one mile to 22,000 miles, who is the walking advertisement of a large soft drink concern of Lexington, was in this city on Wednesday. Mr. Lightfoot is under contract to cover 1,200 miles per month on foot, and to do this he must average not less than forty miles per day, which is a pretty steady pace. On yesterday he walked from Flemingsburg to this city, a distance of more than seventeen miles, in less than four hours. Mr. Lightfoot has walked in every country, having walked around the world several times.

Wednesday in Judge Rice's court, on motion of George W. Laycock, the Equitable Trust Company, of Dover, was appointed administrator of the estate of Bertha Osborne, with capital stock as surety on bond.

ADVERTISE MAYSVILLE.

The other day the little goat at the head of our columns gave us sound advice when it suggested the road to success—

Early to bed,
Early to rise,
Work like a—
And advertise.

The business of running a city is like any other business. Advertising will make a city of the town and a metropolis of the city, and it is to be hoped that before long we will have the new Board of Trade, the publicity department of which will carry on a systematic campaign advertising the many advantages of Maysville.

In the meantime, think Maysville, talk Maysville, and write Maysville; if called out of town, take the best of your city with you and see that those with whom you come in contact will remember Maysville after you have returned. Stir up those former residents who are living elsewhere, and tell them of the big produce business we are doing, tell them of the bricks which Maysville furnished for the handsomest buildings in New Orleans, more than a thousand miles away; remind them of the great hill top reservoir, furnishing a sure and untroubled supply of water; tell them of the leaf tobacco market, handling over 25,000,000 pounds of tobacco in one season, in a word remind them of Maysville's many advantages which are real and only need publicity to be appreciated by the outside world.

Point out to the great farming communities which lie on every side of us how it is to their great advantage to market their crops through this city and to buy from us their supplies and implements; show them our warehouse and transportation facilities, and let them know that we offer them a service unsurpassed anywhere.

Let every letter that goes out say something of Maysville. Let us all lend a hand and boost.

Willie D. James, of Bethlehem, Ky., owns a plover which has been handed down from his great grandfather. It has been all the time on one of the farms now owned by Mr. James—at least 125 years.

It is known that color blind people can not distinguish colors, but the reason for this is not generally known. They can not distinguish many colors, and most of them usually give the appearance of being gray. The cause lies in the constitution of the retina, which microscopically consists of rods and cones. If a certain part of the cones is wanting the sensation they arouse is also wanting. Even the normal eye has not cones fine enough to detect ultra violet rays and electric rays.

Hiram Johnson, a farmer living near Waterville, N. Y., tells a beautiful tale of how he utilizes the digging propensities of three woodchucks which he captured. He says he has trained them to dig straight postholes any depth and size required. He explains that he ties a cord to one of the animal's hind legs, indicates where the hole is to be dug, and when it is sufficiently deep he pulls the cord. The woodchuck then scrambles up for his reward of dried alfalfa.

If the entire population of the world resided in Texas there would be only an average of ten persons to the acre. The population of the world is about 1,650,000,000. If all the inhabitants of the world lived in Texas the density of the population would be about equal to the density of Ft. Worth's population, which is 5,440 a square mile. There are 265,780 square miles in Texas.

When a Siamese girl attains the age of 35 without marrying, she is placed in a privileged class under the special care of the king, who binds himself to find a husband for her. His method is extremely simple. A prisoner in any of the Siamese jails may gain his pardon and release by marrying one of the mature maidens.

The largest well in the world has just been completed at the Chicago stock yards. It is 1,625 feet deep and has a flow of more than 3,000,000 gallons a day. It took two years to sink the well.

Woodrow Wilson says that he does not desire a second term, Fim—that makes it unanimous.

"What reason have you for asserting that Love isn't blind?"

"Well, I've noticed that his blindest smiles are all for the prettiest girls."

MADISON COUNTY NOTES

Interesting Letter From Mrs. C. C. Degman, Ledger's Correspondent At Berea.

Berea, Ky., April 29.

Editor Public Ledger:

The school week here begins on Tuesday and ends on Saturday. The reason for this is that Sunday is kept more sacred. Religious services consume the day. Monday is given to games, walks, rides and other recreations, while the evening is devoted to preparing lessons. An all-day outing is allowed each student once a year to visit any one of the many interesting spots in the county. A two or four-horse rig with driver and chaplains for these trips are provided by the college for a small fee from each student of the party. A Mason county boy who is "making good" as a student, had his "all day" last Monday and was one of sixteen happy youngsters who, behind four good horses and in a large spring wagon, drove twelve miles south to Brush Creek caves. These caves are entered by crawling through a narrow crevice in the mountain side for a few feet into a large underground room. From this room there are narrow passages leading into other rooms, from which other passages open into, as yet not thoroughly explored—mysteries of the mountain.

It is thought by some that the five trees on the campus are showing signs of decline, and the question is being discussed and science is being invoked as to whether the removal of the fallen leaves from the ground is not the reason. This is a question that may interest the Board of Trustees of Rutgers' Campground. Every effort possible is made here to preserve the trees. When a decayed spot appears in the bark, it is treated as a dentist treats a tooth; the decayed part is carefully cut away and the cavity is filled with a specially prepared cement.

A number of citizens went from here to Lexington Monday to attend the ninety-sixth anniversary of the birth of the Orders of Oddfellows. They report a very enjoyable time.

Appropos of the controversy over the Dixie Boone Highway, the citizens here think they have an undisputed right to its location through the town or very near it, and give the following reasons: Madison county has honored the name of Boone by keeping alive the traditions of his trails and camping places. Boone's Gap, a few miles from Berea, is one of the beauty spots where students are taken and told the romantic early history of our fair Kentucky. Boone street is one of the most beautiful streets in Berea. Boone Tavern has for years been noted as a favorite stopping place for travelers, while last, but not least, one of the citizens of Berea claims to have been the discoverer of Boone's Rock in its native woods, a few miles out. Its location was another one of the beauty spots where students visited a score of years ago. Richmond, Madison county's capital city, setting on the rule that "might makes right," had the rock removed to her own court house yard, of which we made mention in a former letter.

At all the churches, Sunday schools or public gatherings of any kind, since the first day of April, the 27th and 28th days have been mentioned as "Clean-up days." The citizens were urged to have everything useless, from old stoves to sardine boxes, placed on the edge of the sidewalks, where wagons could reach them, and special committees were appointed to see that "no one forget." By Tuesday noon the streets were a sight. One would not have thought such a beautiful, clean looking town contained so much rubbish. The Frisella Club is given the credit for this systematic, general "clean-up," and a member of the club won a prize from the Ladies' Home Journal for writing a description of it for the series, "What Women's Clubs are Doing," published in that journal a few years ago. The club is proud—as it has a right to be—of this fact, and see to it that every citizen obeys the "clean-up" order when the Mayor issues it.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Maysville Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness, dizziness, headache. Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All wear one out. Often effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms. Relief is but temporary if the cause remains.

If it's the kidneys, cure the cause. Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney ills.

Read about your neighbor's case. Here's Maysville testimony. The kind that can be investigated. Mrs. John E. Burns, Maysville, Ky., says: "The statement I gave before when I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, still holds good. I know that this remedy is just as represented as it has been used by one of my relatives with satisfactory results. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured at Wood &amp; Son's Drug Store." Mrs. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Burns recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. ## Home Lighting

Home lighting, as a distinctly important division of the home plan, needs much consideration. No iron-clad rule can here be laid down to cover all cases, yet to the householder, about to make a change in his lighting system, some knowledge of the considerations which influence the manufacturer, is invaluable.

The home owner must be assured the chandeliers he buys are practical and conform to the demand of good taste. By "practical" we mean durable, adapted to its use, and made with an eye to convenience—while compliance with the requirements of good taste includes all those things which make up real attractiveness.

REPUBLICANS ARE CONFIDENT

Chicago Result Called Handwriting On Wall.

Washington, May 5.—John C. Eversman, Secretary of the National Republican Congressional Committee, has returned from a trip to Columbus, Cleveland, Youngstown and Pittsburgh, where he met and conferred with Republican leaders in touch with the political situation in their bailiwicks.

"If one wanted to imbibe some old-fashioned Republican enthusiasm one should talk to those men," said Mr. Eversman.

"A year ago the prospect of a political revolution was farthest from their thoughts. Today they are militant and confident that the Democratic party will not carry a single northern state."

"They laugh at the reports sent out from New York that Woodrow Wilson will be a hard man to beat."

"They point to the Chicago municipal election as the handwriting on the wall. It is astonishing how much the Republican victory in Chicago is discussed in other cities."

"And, by the way, whenever any one asserts that local issues rather than protest against Democratic industrial depression were determining factors in that great Republican landslide, consider the wonderful showing made in the so-called industrial wards of the city where the wage-earners, many of foreign birth, live and work. They way these old-time Democratic wards rolled up Republican majorities stunned the Democratic prophets."

"Of course, everybody likes President Wilson personally, but the voters who change the results of elections—and, mind you, that only means five in each voting precinct in the country—do not separate President Wilson from Mr. Bryan. And you are going to hear a great deal about Wilson Bryanism before the 1916 elections."

Frazier, who is her uncle, was bringing her from Fleming county, where she had been visiting in his home for ten months. Frazier gave the alarm last night and claimed they had been held up and robbed and the girl bled with a club. However, officers doubted his story, and an investigation resulted in his arrest.

An autopsy showed that the girl was facing untimely.

PAINFUL DEATH IS SUFFERED BY VICTIMS OF GAS WARFARE.

London, May 5.—There has been given out a report on the use of asphyxiating gases by the Germans from Sir John French, Commander-in-chief of the expeditionary force on the continent, which reads:
"The gases employed by the Germans have been ejected from pipes laid into trenches. It has been produced also by the explosion of shells especially manufactured for this purpose."
"German troops who attacked under cover of these gases were provided with especially designed respirators, which were issued in sealed packages to all points on the line. This shows methodical preparation on a large scale."
"A week before the Germans first used this method they announced in their reports that we were making use of asphyxiating gases. At that time there appeared to be no reason for this astounding falsehood. Now it is obvious that it was part of a scheme, and it is further proof of the deliberate nature of the introduction by the Germans of this new and illegal weapon. It shows they recognized its illegality and that they were anxious to forestall neutral and possibly domestic criticisms."
"Since the enemy first made use of this method of covering his advance with a cloud of poisoned air, he has repeated it both in offensive and defensive whenever the wind has been favorable."
"The effect of this poison is not merely disabling or painfully fatal, as has been suggested in the German press. Those victims who do not succumb on the field and who can not be brought into hospitals suffer acutely, and a large proportion of the cases die in painful and lingering death."
"Those who survive are in little better shape, as the injury to their lungs appears to be of a permanent character and reduces them to a condition which points to their being invalids for life. These effects must have been well known to German scientists who devised this new weapon and to the military authorities who sanctioned its use."
"I am of the opinion that the enemy has definitely decided to use these gases as a normal procedure and that protests will be useless."

BEES IMPROVEMENT IN MAYSVILLE.

Mr. Frank A. Munnen, formerly a resident of this city, now in the insurance business in Minneapolis, visited Maysville a short time ago, after an absence of five years, and finds much improvement here.

Mr. Harry C. Curran, our fellow-townsmen, has received the following letter from Mr. Munnen:

Minneapolis, May 3, 1915.

Dear Hal: I am dropping you a line to say how much I enjoyed my little while in Maysville. This is the first time I have visited there for five years and the change for the better in the old town is certainly most marked. It seemed to me that Maysville has improved more in the last five years than during the previous thirty-five years.

Your well-lighted, paved streets, your sidewalks, the neat and attractive appearance in which the homes and business houses are maintained, the evidence of fresh paint on every side, all indicate a condition of prosperity that is most pleasing. I was much impressed with the development of your home leaf tobacco industry. It is only right and natural that you should have this business, being in the heart of the great Burley producing section of the United States. However, only a very small part of the profits of the tobacco industry remain in Maysville, and if the manufacture of tobacco could be undertaken there it seems that it should be successful and employ a large amount of skilled labor, resulting greatly to the benefit of your town.

In my opinion the one thing that Maysville needs in order to increase its prosperity is a bridge across the Ohio river. I do not believe you people realize what an enormous commercial benefit this would be. In the first place it would double the trading territory now contiguous, would largely increase your jobbing interests, and make Maysville, with its beautiful surroundings, more accessible from the rich and fertile lands lying immediately north in the Ohio valley. Furthermore, I believe that such a bridge forming the connecting link in a chain of fine highways from the north to the south would make Maysville more or less of a resort for the tourists from the large and prosperous cities of Ohio, particularly automobile tourists. This tourist trade during the summer months is very valuable to any place. The writer was touring through New York by motor two summers ago and at Utica found a splendid hotel costing three quarters of a million dollars. The manager advised me that their profits were largely derived from the automobile tourist trade.

On a bright and beautiful Sunday morning while in Maysville we walked down the West End of town and up Buffalo Trace to the top of Whidworth Hill, where we had a magnificent view of the hills, the river, the old town and the wonderful valley in which it is situated. There are few places I have seen that compare in natural beauty of location, and it would be a great pleasure to all of the boys who have left there to feel that the old town and its host of hospitable people should gain every possible advantage from its many desirable features.

I heard while there that there was a possibility that the old court house might be wrecked and a new one built on the site. I should deeply regret any such sacrifice. Any place can have a new court house, but few possess and none can erect a building combining the dignified simplicity and architecture with the old and hallowed associations that should endear this old landmark to every native son.

With love to you and your mother, I remain,
Faithfully,
F. A. M.

JAPAN GIVES CHINA FORTY-EIGHT HOURS TO ANSWER.

Tokio, May 5.—At a special meeting of the cabinet yesterday it was decided, according to authoritative information, to send an ultimatum to China, giving her forty-eight hours in which to acquiesce to Japan's demands.

The Japanese consuls in China have been instructed to be in readiness to quit their posts and return home.

Freight rates have increased within the past three days in anticipation of a call by the government for ships for transport purposes. Tokio remains absolutely calm, the universal opinion being that the Japanese progress through China will be in the nature of a "military procession."

It is stated here that President Yuan Shai Kai bases his refusal to yield to Japan upon his determination not to break faith with Germany. China having signed a treaty with Germany for a period of twenty years. Japan insists that she should have the right to break into the spinster and the wrong man.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

FOUR AUTOS IN PILE

Machines Skid From Wet Pavement Into Ditch—Four Injured.

Cleveland, O., May 5.—Four men were injured and several others had narrow escapes when a series of automobile accidents followed a heavy storm here early Tuesday morning.

E. R. Grasselli, vice president of a chemical company, was injured seriously when his machine skidded on a wet pavement and turned turtle. Sol Bergman, a jeweler; Dr. Harry Spitzer and Samuel Silbert, Police Prosecutor, were injured when a machine in which they were driving from Akron to Cleveland, skidded into the ditch between Hudson and Twinsburg.

Three other machines took to the ditch at the same place, piling up behind each other.

Correspondence

PARK HILL AND WALLINGFORD.

Rev. Godfrey conducted services here on Sunday morning and night.

Mr. J. W. Hunter is again suffering with heart trouble, but his condition is not serious and his early recovery is expected.

There is some talk of building a church and the site selected in anticipation seems to meet the approval of every one.

Tobacco plants are very scarce, there being fewer of them this year than for many years past, and some are predicting only half a crop.

J. P. Hartley, the bee man, discovered a beehive the other day in a house log. He uncovered the hive and obtained thirty pounds of honey.

Emerson McKee, wife and baby passed through here on Sunday morning, and just as they were in front of the Methodist church the mule they were driving became frightened and bolted.

Mrs. McKee jumped with the baby, both escaping injury, and Mr. McKee, soon finding that the animal was beyond his control, also jumped. The mule was found later some distance off, still hitched to the buggy. There was no damage, except a broken kicking strap.

Mr. A. Perkins arrived from Missouri last week and says that Kentucky is good enough for him.

Rev. James H. Howe, of Wedonia, was here last week and purchased a lot of lumber from J. J. Dugan. The J. B. O. U. A. M., of this place, went to Louisville last week to organize a lodge.
